The District of Columbia Justice Grants Administration (JGA) announces the availability of Federal funds to focus on culturally-competent and community-based (1) youth delinquency prevention and diversion programs; and (2) adult reentry programs targeted to provide mental health and/or substance abuse treatment services. Data-driven and scientific-based practices must be implemented to enhance community-based services for program participants. Adult reentry programs are required to partner with District agencies. Only one application per entity will be accepted under each category as listed in the RFA.

Eligibility: Category 1: Only nonprofit organizations are eligible, and invited to submit an application specific to the Request for Application (RFA) funding priorities. Category 2: Only District agencies are eligible, and invited to submit an application specific to the RFA funding priorities. Eligible entities must have capacity to provide services effective October 1, 2015 through September 30, 2016.

The JGA Consolidated RFA will be available on Monday, April 27, 2015 under Funding Opportunities at <http://jga.dc.gov> as well as at <http://opgs.dc.gov/page/opgs-district-grants-clearinghouse>. All submissions are due by 3:00 p.m., May 29, 2015, via JGA's electronic grants management system (eGMS) , Zoomgrants™.

Questions must be emailed to jga.agency@dc.gov by May 1, 2015 with subject reference "Consolidated JGA RFA 2016 Inquiry" with reference to Category 1 or 2 .
