Consolidated JGA Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA)

FY 2015 Title II Formula Grants Program

The District of Columbia Justice Grants Administration announces the availability of funds that will focus on supporting Delinquency Prevention programs, research, or other initiatives to prevent or reduce the incidence of delinquent acts and directed to youth at risk of becoming delinquent to prevent them from entering the juvenile justice system or to intervene with first-time and non-serious offenders to keep them out of the juvenile justice system. This program area excludes programs targeted at youth already adjudicated delinquent, on probation, in corrections, and those programs designed specifically to prevent gang-related or substance abuse activities undertaken as part of program areas #12(Gangs) and #32(Substance Abuse).

Eligibility: Qualified government, non-government, and non-governmental organizations that are partnering with government agencies are eligible and invited to submit applications specific to the RFA funding priorities.

For more information, contact Bridgette Royster, Juvenile Justice Specialist at 202- 727-5047 or bridgette.royster@dc.gov.

 Number of awards and amounts are dependent upon federal funding levels and the quality and quantity of proposals received.*
